

Impulse wins silver at Neocon 2013

For the second successive year, Viasit wins silver at Neocon. Ralf Umland together with Viasit's own development team have created a product range with a powerful, distinctive design, whilst using a perfectly conceived modular design principle.

Impulse collection - the name says it all.

Impulse will be introduced into the Burgtec collection later this year. For more information please contact the friendly Burgtec sales team.

stay in contact

like our page on facebook to keep updated with our latest products, projects and events as well as any special news and competitions.

click here visit our page >>